

Call for Book Chapters

Theories of Change in Digital Wellbeing

Volume III – Applications in Psychology

Peter Lang Publishing House

Important dates:

Title & abstract submission:

01.06.2021

Preliminary acceptance/rejection:

03.06.2021

Full chapter submission:

04.07.2021

First review notification:

04.08.2021

Revised chapter submission:

15.08.2021

Acceptance/Rejection notification:

30.08.2021

Camera Ready submission:

15.09.2021

For further details, contact:

Dr. Roxana MAIER
Aurel Vlaicu University of Arad
roxanamaierpsiho@gmail.com

Dr. Florinda GOLU
University of Bucharest
florinda.golu@fpse.unibuc.ro

Dr. Dana RAD,
Aurel Vlaicu University of Arad
dana@xhouse.ro

Dr. Tiberiu DUGHI,
Aurel Vlaicu University of Arad
tibi\_dughi@yahoo.com

Editors:

Dr. Roxana MAIER, Associate Professor, Faculty of Educational Sciences, Psychology and Social Sciences, Aurel Vlaicu University of Arad, Romania

Dr. Florinda GOLU, Associate Professor, Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences, University of Bucharest, Romania

Dr. Dana RAD, Associate Professor, Faculty of Educational Sciences, Psychology and Social Sciences, Aurel Vlaicu University of Arad, Romania

Dr. Tiberiu DUGHI, Associate Professor, Faculty of Educational Sciences, Psychology and Social Sciences, Aurel Vlaicu University of Arad, Romania

Digital wellbeing is an emerging concept standing in between psychology and technology. Digital wellbeing refers to the impact of technologies and digital services on people's mental and emotional health. This book represents the Third Volume scientifically attempting to understand and identify the positive and negative impacts of engaging with digital environments and creating new evidence based strategies to manage and control this complex system in order to enhance wellbeing.

Contents:

1. Covers inferential research work in digital wellbeing,
2. Ripens psycho-technology models for increasing digital wellbeing,
3. Testing reliability and validity of research models and interventions,
4. Suggesting improvement measures for digital wellbeing,
5. Adapting new models for elevating the digital wellbeing,
6. Explore digital wellbeing index in different cultures and environments,
7. Covers basic and advanced concepts related to digital wellbeing.